Your responsibilities

a) Duty of disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms. You also have this duty when you renew, extend or vary an insurance contract with us. You do not need to tell us anything that:

- i. reduces the risk we insure you for;
- ii. is common knowledge; or
- iii. we know or ought to know as an insurer.

If you do not comply with the Duty of Disclosure, we may refuse to pay a claim, reduce the claim amount or cancel the policy.

b) Duty to act fairly and honestly

The law requires you, any third party beneficiary under your policy and us to act towards each other with utmost good faith, fairly, openly and honestly in respect of any matters arising under your policy.

c) Underinsurance

You need to ensure that the insured sum or the limit of indemnity for each insured item is appropriate for your needs. An underinsurance or average clause applies to the following categories; Category One - Buildings, Category Two - Inventory and Category Three - Business Interruption of this PDS.

d) Claims made Under Category Five - Liability we offer a claims made and notified cover. This means you are required to tell us of any event that has occurred prior to the commencement date of the policy that may give rise to a claim.

Privacy

Protecting your privacy and your personal information is important to us. We collect information to decide whether to insure you. If you do not provide this information, we will not be able to insure you. Any personal information you give us will be treated in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

We may disclose your personal information to third parties as necessary to assist us in providing services to you. Those third parties include related companies within the Achmea Group and associated companies of Achmea. Some of the third parties may be overseas, most likely in The Netherlands.

Our Privacy Statement contains more information about how we manage personal information that we may collect. You may access a copy of our Privacy Statement from the download section of our website www.achmea.com.au.

If you give us personal information about other people, we rely on you to tell them that you will provide their information to us and of the information in this notice. We may also use the information for our business purposes as reasonably necessary.
